GOVERNMENT ACQUISITION

The mission is waiting on a file.

Behind every package is a mission waiting to move.

Help acquisition teams find the source, prepare the review and carry the work forward with QURii.

Give the reviewer a clearer path to the decision.

The Digital Contract Assistant use case brings approved acquisition material into a defined review workflow. Professionals retain the authority to judge, approve and act.

ONE WORKFLOW. A CLEAR START.

What is waiting beyond the acquisition queue?

01

Assemble the record

Retrieve from the approved corpus and identify the source and version used.

02

Support the review

Highlight potential gaps and prepare questions for a qualified reviewer.

03

Preserve the handoff

Route the reviewed package and retain the rationale, approval and next owner.

MAKE THE VALUE VISIBLE

Start with one acquisition team and one document-review workflow. Use approved sample material. Agree on reviewer roles, access boundaries and evidence requirements before testing.

MEASURE THE CHANGE

Review time
Rework per package
Source traceability

Bring one acquisition bottleneck to a working session.
